Section T

Existing Regulation

4.1.10. The same Driver must drive throughout any Competition.

10.6.1. There are no restrictions on engine tuning, providing the cylinder block is of the same manufacture and configuration as the original.

Proposed Regulation

4.1.10. The same Driver must drive throughout any Competition.

Reason: To allow Supplementary Regulations to state that two drivers can share an entry to a Trials event and share the sections between each driver, whilst still being classified together in the results.

Date of Implementation: 1st January 2018.

10.6.1. There are no restrictions on engine tuning, providing the cylinder block is of the same manufacture and configuration as the original and available during the production life of the vehicle.

Reason: To prevent the fitting of modern engines to Classic Trials cars.

Date of Implementation: 1st January 2018.
