

Attendance signatures

Marshals may obtain an upgrade signature instead of an attendance signature if they handle a major incident. The Post Chief may sign the personal record card.

Upgrade Assessment

An upgrade signature is not automatic. If the assessor does not consider the marshal is ready for an upgrade or they had no incidents to handle, they will record the reasons on the personal record card together with their recommendations for corrective actions.