J2019/16 Eden Spanswick – Application C2.1.9

This matter came before the National Court as an application under General Regulations C2.1.9 following the suspension of Eden Spanswick's licence for three months in accordance with General Regulation C2.1.8.1.

Having heard representations from Mr Spanswick, the Panel feel that the evidence presented by him does not meet the requirements of the regulations. The Panel do not feel empowered to vary the suspension. As a result, the term of the suspension and suspension itself stand.

No order for costs is made.
