Section G – Officials

Proposed Regulation

G13.1.2. They undertake their duties at their own risk and must go no nearer the course than is essential to perform their duties.

G13.1.2.1. It is recommended that Officials and Marshals at a start line do not stand directly in front or behind any competing vehicle.

Date of Implementation: Immediate

Reason: Safety – following safety concerns raised by the Timekeeping Advisory Group over vehicles unexpectedly moving forwards or backwards from stationary at the start line. It is recommended that Officials and Marshals that are performing duties at the start line, such as lining cars up into their starting positions, do not stand directly in front or behind the vehicle where they could be hit if the vehicle moves unexpectedly.
